

8th April 2020

TWELFTH FLOOR ONLINE AND IN PERSON

12 Wentworth Selborne remains open in-person at 180 Phillip Street.

We are delighted to welcome our new clerk, Trish Hoff. Trish comes to 12th Floor with a wealth of experience and expertise, having most recently been clerk at 5 Wentworth. Trish can be contacted here.

In accordance with social distancing directives, 12th Floor has also embraced and adopted technology to offer continuing services and practice.

Our barristers are able and willing to receive instructions and communications, conduct conferences and provide advice and opinions electronically. Conferences with solicitors and clients are being conducted by telephone or video (using technology including Zoom, Skype, Facetime, WhatsApp and Microsoft Teams).

Members of 12th Floor are also participating in mediation and other forms of alternative dispute resolution virtually, and have embraced audio -visual links for matters in court. 12th Floor counsel are also continuing to appear by telephone in Registrar's lists for directions.

Courts across NSW and Australia are using technology to continue the administration of justice. The NSW Bar Association has prepared a consolidated guide to information about attending at Court which can be found here.