Summary

I am an experienced barrister with a broad practice across all areas of commercial law.

I typically appear in the Federal Court of Australia and the Supreme Court of NSW. I generally appear unled, and I have also been briefed as a junior to some of Australia's leading silks.

I have particular expertise in competition law. I also have significant experience in class actions (both for and against the class), consumer law (misleading or deceptive conduct, unconscionable conduct, unfair contract terms), professional negligence, administrative law and equity matters.

I have been briefed by leading corporations including Apple Inc, Meta Platforms Inc, Instagram Inc, TPG Telecom, Mazda Australia, Hancock Prospecting, Mastercard and Telstra Corporation.

I have considerable experience in regulatory proceedings brought by the ACCC and ASIC, in which I have appeared both for and against the regulator. I also have experience in white collar crime, having appeared for an individual in Australia's only criminal cartel jury trial and having appeared for corporations in sentencing hearings.

I have been briefed extensively in disputes relating to digital platforms, telecommunications, banking and financial services, franchising, mining and resources, and the automotive industry. Following a science degree in which I studied microbiology, genetics, chemistry and higher mathematics, I have an interest in disputes which require scientific analysis and numeracy.

I have been recognised in a range of legal directories (Chambers & Partners, Doyle's Guide, Legal 500, and Best Lawyers) as a leading junior counsel in both commercial litigation and competition law. For example, I have been recognised as a leading barrister in commercial litigation by Doyle's Guide since 2017, and I am one of only four junior counsel in Australia recognised for competition law expertise by Chambers and Partners.

Chambers and Partners says: "Conor Bannan is outstanding. He is incredibly accurate and a very good advocate"; Legal 500 says: "Conor is always calm, reliable and accurate in his analysis. He brings the same strength to his advocacy".

Before coming to the bar, I worked as a solicitor for a period of approximately 10 years (at Mallesons Stephen Jaques and Gilbert & Tobin in Sydney, and at Linklaters LLP in London). During my time as a solicitor, I also completed secondments to Westpac Banking Corporation in Sydney and the Royal Bank of Scotland plc in London and Edinburgh.
