

Amelia Avery-Williams and Phoebe Boyle successful in Professional Negligence matter

Amelia Avery-Williams and Phoebe Boyle recently appeared for the (successful) defendant in Victorian X-Ray Group Pty Ltd v Malouf t/a Malouf Solicitors (No 3) [2024] NSWSC 888. The Court dismissed the plaintiffs' claims that the defendant was negligent because he failed to advise them their defences to District Court litigation, in which they had been represented by the defendant, were hopeless and doomed to fail.

The decision can be accessed here.